QUALITATIVE INEQUALITY ASSESSMENTS FOR CRVS SYSTEMS
Part 1: The Bali Process Toolkit

Dr. Syed Mohammad Mursalin
National technical Adviser, Technical Support Unit – CRVS, Ministry of Planning, Development & Special Initiatives, Pakistan

Highlights of career and experience
- National Technical Adviser – CRVS since January 2017. Also TSU–CRVS Focal Person for Piloting of Bali Process Toolkit
- Worked in Ministry of Health as National Coordinator HIS/CRVS 2001–2010
- Worked as Consultant to organizations like USAID, UNICEF, ADB, UNDP on multiple
- Represented Govt. of Pakistan on number of CRVS –International Events

Dr. Sriprapha Petcharamesree
Faculty Member, Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies
Mahidol University, Thailand

Highlights of career and experience
- Reaching human rights studies at graduate level
- Research and advocate on issues relating to migration, forced migration in particular
- Research and advocate on BR of all children in Thailand and beyond
- Participate in the preparation of the CRVS Toolkit of RSO/UNHCR
- Advising the Thai government regarding the Pilot of CRVS Toolkit
Highlights of career and experience

- Has extensive experience in management of judicial records; management of authentication; state management of nationality and civil registration
- Has extensive experience in law development, especially chairing the Editorial Board of legal normative documents related to the Law on Civil status, Law on Nationality, Law on Adoption and its guiding documents, and other legal documents; Extensive experience in international law
- Currently in charge of directing and operating the focal point of the Ministry of Justice for piloting the Bali Toolkit in Vietnam
- Chairman of the ministerial level scientific project on impacts of customs of ethnic minorities on management of civil registration; and the ministerial scientific project on theoretical and practical issues related to development of the Law on Civil status
- Member of the Drafting Board of many laws, ordinances and legal normative documents, including those on civil registration

Highlights of career and experience

- Worked in academia, government and international organizations on international law, human rights and humanitarian policy
- Worked on nationality, documentation and registration for UNHCR in various African countries

Dr. Dr. Matthias Reuss
Senior Statelessness Officer
UNHCR, Regional Bureau for Asia and the Pacific

Dr. Nguyen Cong Khanh
Director General, Department of Civil Registration, Nationality, Authentication Ministry of Justice, Viet Nam
QUALITATIVE INEQUALITY ASSESSMENTS FOR CRVS SYSTEMS

Part 2: Other Qualitative Assessments

Highlights of career and experience

- New Zealand’s Registrar-General for Civil Registration, leading innovations including fully online birth, death and marriage services
- Member of the UNESCAP Asia and Pacific Steering Committee for CRVS
- Convener of the Pacific Civil Registrars Network
- Lead a Comprehensive Assessment and Action Plan CRVS in Papua New Guinea
- Contributed to CRVS improvements in Bangladesh, Fiji, Niue and Tonga

Mr. Jeff Montgomery
Registrar-General
Civil Registration Department of Internal Affairs, New Zealand

Dr. Claire Brolan
Development Research Fellow
Centre for Policy Futures
University of Queensland

Highlights of career and experience

- Hold Post-Doctoral studies at The University of Toronto examined rights-based approaches to strengthening CRVS systems for equitable SDG achievement
- An Honorary Advisor & Thematic Expert for SDG 3 on the Legal & Economic Empowerment Global Network human rights & SDG advisory board to the UN
- Managed the Knowledge Management Centre of the Bloomberg Data for Health Initiative, Melbourne School of Global & Population Health, in 2017
- Originally trained in international human rights law in the UK, with experience in refugee, political asylum and humanitarian law, including working to secure the rights of stateless and trafficked individuals, and unaccompanied minors
DISCUSSANT FOR PART 1

Ms. Ni Ni Aung

Project Manager (Policy and Partnership), The Regional Support Office, The Bali Process on People Smuggling, Trafficking in Persons and Related Transnational Crime

Highlights of career and experience

- Record of working experience on migrant protection and assistance and counter-trafficking in persons in different capacities at the NGOs and the International Organization for Migration based in Thailand and Myanmar
- Expertise in migration management and migrant protection program management.
- Record of academic background on International Law and Human Rights, Global Politics (International Relations), and Business Administration (Finance and Banking)

DISCUSSANT FOR PART 2

Ms. Irina Dincu

Senior Program Specialist, Centre of Excellence for Civil Registration and Vital Statistics Systems

Highlights of career and experience

- Currently provides strategic direction to the IDRC and oversees technical country support and partnerships; and provides technical advice to selected GFF countries to ensure quality of the CRVS components of their RMNCAH investment cases
- Led UNICEF’s regional office support to strengthen evidence-based measurable communication interventions to facilitate and champion polio eradication and routine immunization in 24 countries across West and Central Africa
- Provided civil registration system evaluation; developed strategy to strengthen the civil registration system in Chad
- Provided advisory services for the National Civil Registration Project in Cambodia
Highlights of career and experience

- Led the statistics team at UNHCR, working on a wide variety of statistical and demographic issues related to forced displacement and statelessness
- A sociologist-demographer by training, she has further experience in both the international and national statistical systems including the United Nations Population Division, the UK Department for International Development and the Israel Central Bureau of Statistics

Ms. Petra Nahmias
Chief, Population and Social Statistics Section, Statistics Division, ESCAP